NATYA

50 YEARS OF POETS' ARTISTS' DAY

AUREA

ON 17 FEBRUARY 2025 AT LISSIEUX HALL

Natya Aurea - a blend of the Sanskrit word for performance and the Latin word for gold, referring to the golden jubilee of this festival of theatre. It symbolises a union of the distinct aesthetics and literatures belonging to different cultures, eras and continents, that find expression on stage, during the competition.

2024-25 marks the 50th year of the Poets' Artists' Day that is organised annually, for the coveted Leo Trophy, awarded to the best team that performs works by literary stalwarts. The competition is held in memory and honour of Rev. Sr. Mary Leo, first Head of the Department.

Join us in celebrating five decades of artistic brilliance and poetic excellence. This milestone event honours the invaluable contributions of poets and artists who have enriched this world with their creativity, passion, and vision.

EVENTS
